Associate Solicitor

RAHMAN RAVELLI

Josie Welland

As a highly-rated associate solicitor specialising in the defence of white-collar crime cases, Josie has carved a reputation for insightful representation of both corporates and individuals facing allegations of global economic wrongdoing or financial impropriety.

Josie is known for her sensitive, intelligent management of investigations and prosecutions in a range of multi-jurisdictional matters. Her caseload has a particular focus on asset recovery as well as allegations of bribery and corruption, fraud, tax evasion and money laundering. At any given time, she is managing a busy client portfolio that covers a broad range of large, complex and cross-border contentious matters.

While adept at managing her own caseload from pre-action and investigation through to trial, Josie is also in demand among colleagues who routinely seek her assistance in complex and high-value cases.

Her widely-recognised expertise coupled with her ability to provide informed legal advice have made her popular with clients, colleagues and other figures in the legal profession.

As a result, she has been heavily involved in some of the most significant bribery and corruption, tax evasion, cryptocurrency, money laundering and national and multinational fraud cases.

She has extensive experience of representing clients in investigations brought by agencies such as the Serious Fraud Office, the Financial Conduct Authority and HM Revenue and Customs.
